Europe

As defined by IATA (the International Air Transport Association), the following states and areas are part of Europe:

Albania	Germany	Portugal
Algeria	Gibraltar	Republic of Ireland
Andorra	Greece	Republic of Macedonia
Armenia	Hungary	Republik of Moldova
Austria	Iceland	Romania
Belgium	Italy	San Marino
Bosnia Herzegovina	Latvia	Serbia
Bulgaria	Liechtenstein	Slovakia
Croatia	Lithuania	Slovenia
Cyprus	Luxembourg	Spain
Czech Republic	Malta	Svalbard and Jan Mayen
Denmark	Monaco	Sweden
Estonia	Montenegro	Switzerland
Faroe Islands	Morocco	Tunisia
Finland	Netherlands	Turkey
France	Norway	United Kingdom
Georgia	Poland

CIS

In line with IATA's definition the CIS countries are considered to be part of Europe; however, they are treated separately for calculations under the weight concept.

Azerbaijan	Belarus	Russia (European part)
Ukraine		